Higher Education Leadership Ministries

Higher Education Sunday was a special part of our Anniversary series on Sunday. Here's a photo of some of our students who led in worship Sunday. (From left to right) Standing with Austin Schmidt and Alison Fitzgerald is Dominic Minatel in his third year as a Religion major. Next is Julia Vasquez in her third year studying Environmental Science. Emily James (far right) is in her second year as a student of Dance Performance and Psychology. Also leading in worship Sunday was Dory McDonald who sings with our Chancel Choir every week. We are blessed by these talented students. It's not too late to participate in the special offering to Higher Education Leadership Ministries, a ministry of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Please note HELM with your gift.

ALL ages are welcome to serve!

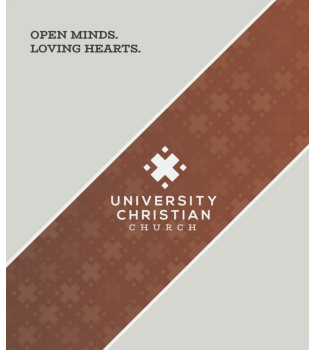

When: Saturday, October 21 from 9 a.m. -12 p.m.

As stewards of the earth, we are called to live in harmony with the environment—to respect, honor, and care for the gifts of God’s creation and all living beings. Something as simple as picking up trash is a way to practice our faith. It’s a small step in treating the earth with compassion. Serving at this park is unique in that it is a step towards the goal of creating a high-quality green space and recreational area for low-income and other high-risk, vulnerable populations.
