Wednesday, November 29 at 6 pm

You are invited to an old fashioned fellowship meal in Walker Hall as we prepare for the season of Advent. There will be a cozy meal of homemade soup and sandwiches, tables to create ornaments, you can decorate trees and cookies, and we'll sing some Christmas songs.

This Advent season we will focus on some surprising gifts that come to us if we are able to be patient, still, and pay attention. In the Gospel of Luke, Zechariah and Elizabeth are the first two people we meet in the Advent narrative. They'll be our guides in this journey through Advent and will teach us about the living in the pain of unanswered prayers, the power of silence and simplicity, the blessing of life-giving relationships, and the promise of God to make a way, even when it seems no way is to be found.

December, January, February

Beginning December 13, UCC will host homeless guests on Wednesday evenings. We offer a home-cooked meal, table fellowship, a warm bed, and stick-to-your-ribs breakfast the next morning. This cold weather ministry of hospitality lasts through February. Contact carolmstewart@sbcglobal.net to discover your place to serve.

Sunday, December 3, 9:30 am-12:30 pm in The Gallery

Celebrate the season with unique gifts through our alternative giving market Gifts of Hope. Honor your loved ones with a gift that transforms lives. Learn more or shop online by visiting universitychristian.org/gifts-of-hope/.
