A Quick Boar's Head Thank You

Boar's Head took place this past weekend, and all four shows were very well-attended. Thank you so much to those who came. We even had a six year-old tell us, "That was the most amazing thing I've ever seen!" Boar's Head will return on Saturday, January 4, 2025 for Year 47. We hope to see you there.

A blue and white bus with "Carter BloodCare" and "Donor" branding. The bus number "443" is visible on the front.

There are two dates available -- this Friday (1/12) and this Sunday (1/14). Both dates have availability from 11 am to 5 pm at the church. You can scan the corresponding QR codes in the image above to select your preferred date. If you don't love QR codes as a concept, here are links for Friday and Sunday.

There have been other blood drives organized in honor of the family, and we understand if you've contributed previously. If you are able this weekend, we'd love to have you.

Finding Peace Through Letting Go

PEOPLE

FORGIVENESS

FAMILY

ACCEPTED

This series will commence this Sunday with Scripture from Mark 11: 20-25, and continue through February 4 with Scripture from Luke 23.

If you're contemplating the role of forgiving others as a new year dawns, this is a perfect series for you to consider and use to guide daily actions.

Join us for a discussion with Senior Minister, Rev. Russ Peterman

If you'd like to learn more about UCC and what we believe and belonging to this church home in 2024 and beyond, we have organized a dinner with Russ and other ministers. It's a relaxed way to understand University Christian in the context of your faith journey.
