Getting around this Sunday

Many of the areas of the church are under abatement and construction due to the ongoing Cornerstone Project. Some of the entrances and hallways that you might normally use might be closed due to construction. We'll have more detailed information throughout the weeks. Starting this Sunday we'll have a golf cart ministry for transit to and from the front porte-cochère to the Sanctuary entrances. Check out the latest info at universitychristian.org/cornerstone.

The livestreams will be moving to the new times as well, however the radio broadcast on KTCU will be at 11:00 but delayed by one week.

Vinery Feedback still needed

UCC Vinery Town Halls were a tremendous time of learning about The Vinery, a national & multi-denominational 2 year program UCC applied for & participates in! Church members shared insights about ways that UCC could connect to TCU & serve students, faculty, staff, alumni, families, community partners, and others for the next 150 years.

The Vinery Lead Team is asking all congregants to fill out this anonymous & brief Google form in order to help them learn how UCC members envision UCC's relationship to the TCU & Fort Worth community. Please consider reaching out to Rev. Alison Fitzgerald, Rev. Austin Schmidt, Taylor Howell, or Brooks Davenport to share more about your experiences of UCC, or what you imagine UCC could do to care for all of our TCU neighbors.

We want your feedback!
